Overview

What is Haworth office furniture?

Haworth's holistic office furniture portfolio includes task chairs, architectural products, and modular workstations. Our ancillary products bring aesthetics and functionality to commercial and residential spaces. Haworth blends innovative design, user research, and quality materials to create outstanding products.

Who makes Haworth furniture?

Founded in 1948 by G. W. Haworth, the company designs and manufactures seating, tables, movable walls, panels, storage, and wood casegoods. Haworth's furniture pieces, combined with interior design and technology, are intended to create a focus on "organic workspaces that help people perform their best."

What options are available for Haworth products?

Our configuration tools help you explore all the available options for Haworth products. X-Series office cabinets offers a range of office shelving that adapts to a variety of workstyles. These office storage shelves are also durable and secure.

What makes Haworth unique?

Haworth's international studios partner with renowned designers to shape the style, form, and functionality of our products. While Haworth is known for our standout ergonomic chairs, we offer a full suite of furniture and décor for offices, hospitality spaces, and more. Haworth has been zero waste to landfill since 2012.

When did Haworth become a company?

By 1986, Haworth had become the third-largest office furniture manufacturer in the U.S., with sales topping $300 million and a workforce of 2,600 employees. In 1988, Haworth became a global company after undertaking a strategic expansion.

Is Haworth a zero waste company?

Haworth has been zero waste to landfill since 2012. Environmental stewardship and sustainable manufacturing are key parts of our mission. Our dealer network collaborates with commercial clients and A+D firms to deliver workplace solutions. Our e-commerce store offers customers the option to purchase Haworth products directly.
