

Hot-dip galvanized photovoltaic panel price

Overview

What is hot dip galvanized steel photovoltaic mounting system?

Hot-Dip Galvanized Steel photovoltaic mounting system is typically applied on flat open field ground. Main components are high pre-assembled in our factory, which save lots of your on site installing time and cost. Components are full sides anodized even for small parts, which has a great anti-corrosion effect and long lifetime.

What is hot dipped galvanized steel?

The use of hot dipped galvanized steel for the solar industry provides a cost-effective and low maintenance solution. What is Galvanizing?

Galvanizing is a manufacturing process in which a coating of zinc is applied to the steel to protect it from corrosion and rust.

What are the advantages of hot dip galvanized steel?

Hot dip galvanized steel provides a number of distinct and crucial advantages for the solar industry. For one, it is corrosion-resistant, durable, and damage-resistant. It is also sustainable as it does not produce emissions. The low maintenance and minimal wear over time allow HDG to bring incredible long term cost savings to the solar industry.

Is hot dip galvanizing expensive?

Hot dip galvanizing is perceived to be more expensive than it is in initial, or first, cost terms. However, when considering lifetime costs, hot dip galvanizing is considerably cheaper than most other systems.

What is hot dip galvanized (HDG)?

Unistrut Channel Hot Dip Galvanized (HDG) - the finished part is immersed in a bath of molten zinc. This method results in complete zinc coverage and a thicker coating than pre-galvanized or plated zinc. The zinc coating is typically

2.6 MIL or 1.5 oz./sq. ft. of surface area.
