Are solar street lights a good idea?

According to a study in the US, solar street lights can yield lifecycle cost savings ranging from 15% to 50% compared to traditional lighting systems. (Source: NREL) The US Department of Energy reports that each solar street light can offset approximately 2.5 tons of CO2 emissions annually. (Source: US Department of Energy).

What are the benefits of solar powered street lights?

Solar powered street lights are fast and easy to implement, have greater reliability during power outages and don't add emissions. Lighting at transit stops, crosswalks and sidewalks is a proven way to reduce accidents involving pedestrians and vehicles. Lighting is also important to prevent other types of accidents, like slips and trips.

What is a solar street light & parking lot?

Solar Lighting International's All-In-One solar street and parking lot and street light provides multiple programming options. Standard features are a standard dusk-to-dawn solar lighting option without dimming, optional adjustable timed control mode, and motion-activated human body sensor mode via our dual sensor technology.

Do solar lights need brackets?

Brackets are almost always required for solar lighting installations. This is because the solar is almost always mounted to the top of the pole and the fixture needs to be mounted lower on the pole. The fixture bracket allows the fixture to mount directly to the same pole and out away from the pole at times.
