Will large-scale PV deployment contribute to China's net-zero electricity system by 2050?

The contribution of large-scale PV deployment to China's net-zero electricity system by 2050. As China has pledged to become carbon neutral by 2060, electrifying its energy sector is no doubt one of the priority measures to support the transition towards a more sustainable and decarbonized energy system.

Does solar radiation affect solar power generation in South China?

By contrast, the induced average changes in South China do not exceed -1.62% under RCP4.5 and -2.80% under RCP8.5. Projected solar radiation will have a positive contribution to the PV power generation in the south but a negative contribution in the west.
